Madrid, July 9.

THE King and Queen, with the Prince, and the Infantes, continue at the Escorial, where Colonel Stanhope, the King of Great Britain's Minister, has had Audience of his Catholick Majesty. Orders have been sent to Barcelona to prepare Transports to be sent to Sicily to take on board the rest of the Imbarkation of the Spanish Forces, with such of the Natives of that Island as have a Mind to retire from thence with their Effects, pursuant to the Liberty granted to them by the Treaty of Evacuation. Orders have been sent at the same time to Barcelona and Alicant, to provide for the Subsistence of the Troops that are to land there from Sicily, and to prepare for them Quarters of Refreshment. Seven Battalions and three Regiments of Horse and Dragoons, are arrived at M'aga, to be transported to Africa, to reinforce the Garrison of Ceuta.

Rome, July 6. The Prior Vaini is returned hither from Malta, where he assisted at the Election of the new Great Master of that Order. The Garrison of Palo, a town on the Coast belonging to the Duke de Terorondo, have been brought hither and put into several Prisons, for having killed the Vice-Treasurer of the Apostolick Chamber, when he went to take Possession of the said Place in the Pope's Name. The Governor of Santa Felicita, which Place belongs to the Duke de Gravina, has had the same Fate, for having disobeyed the Pope's Orders, being besides accused of having countenanced the running of prohibited Goods, and given Shelter to the Banditti. The Law-suit concerning the Succession to the Estate of the late Marquess Pallavicini, having been lately determined by a final Sentence in favour of some Genoese Gentlemen of the Name of Arnaldi, it was thought there was an End of that Dispute; but a new Law-suit is arisen since: A natural Daughter of the Deceased, who is now in a Convent here, has entered an Appeal against the Execution of the said Sentence, alledging, that she has been forced to leave the Religious Orders, and that she has entered a Protest in proper Places and Form against the Vows which she was compelled to make, which she offers to make out by Evidences and Writings. And so she lays Claim to the whole Estate as the only and lawful Heiress, and has obtained a Provision of 150 Scudi towards carrying on her Cause. On the 1st Instant, the Pope's Nephew Don Carlo Albani, being accompanied by Cardinal Albani his Brother, presented his three Sons to his Holiness, who received them with great Tenderness.

M. Laffiteau, Bishop of Cisteron, has had several Conferences with divers Cardinals who are of the Ministry, relating to the Duke of Lorrain's Request to erect a Bishoprick in his Territories, the Diocess of which being to be taken out of the Bishopricks of Metz and Toul; this Design meets with strong Opposition from the Court of France, and we do not hear that the Pope has taken any Resolution thereupon as yet. The Express which the said Bishop of Cisteron sent lately to France is returned from thence with Dispatches from that Court and Sig. Massei, who resides at Paris on the Pope's Part. They relate to the Affairs of the Constitution, which as the Bishop assures, will speedily be terminated to the Pope's Satisfaction. Yesterday in the Evening Cardinal Altan arrived in the Neighbourhood of this City, and proceeded to Frascati, to stay a while there at the Country House of Don Livio Odescalchi, and Cardinal del Giudice has sent thither his Secretary to compliment his Eminency on his Arrival.

Genoa, July 6. On the 1st Instant the Earl of Peterborough arrived here from England, as did Yesterday Prince Orléans de Medicis from Milan, expecting the Ships with which he is to go over to Sardinia.

Venice, July 13. On the 6th Instant Sig. Duodo, accompanied by a great Number of the Nobility, went into the Assembly of the Senate, and made Report of the Negotiations transacted by him at Rome during his Embassy at that Court. On the 11th Mr. Burgess, the King of Great Britain's Resident, went with the usual publick Solemnity to the Senate, attended by the Consul and several Gentlemen of the British Nation. He made a Speech to the Senate in English, to which an Answer was made in proper Terms: After which Audience he gave an Entertainment to those of his Nation who had attended him.
